Dear friends in Christ,

This Monday August 4th is the feast of Saint John Vianney, the Patron of our faith community. We welcome Bishop Matano who takes time to be with us this Saturday afternoon, August 2nd, and to celebrate the feast of our parish's patron. We extend our deep gratitude to our bishop for being here with us.

Looking back in my calendar, I have been here for five weeks already. I continue to learn so many things about our parish and recognize God's blessings granted to us through a long history of our faith community. In terms of worship schedule, after July 4th weekend we started Eucharistic Adoration 90 minutes before daily Mass on Monday and Thursday at St. Mary's and on Tuesday and Friday at St. Gabriel's. Back in March, a short time after accepting this assignment, a message of opening the church for parishioners to visit and pray grew strong in my prayer. During the last few weeks of my ministry here, I have met some visitors on vacation. They took time to attend adoration and daily masses also. They were so glad to find a place where they can spend time with Jesus. Some parishioners expressed that they can pray better in a quiet and healing environment before the presence of the Holy Eucharist.

Recently, we moved the staff offices to the school building. Shelly and Nicki's office is now located in the former chapel on the first floor. Becky, our business manager and I have offices on the second floor. For those who cannot walk upstairs, we do have a room near Shelly's office so that our staff members and I can meet with you. In the near future, we will have a ramp installed outside the entrance to the school building. It will be easier for those who have wheelchairs or walkers. The telephone and internet services were installed. There were some technical problems during the first few days. I ask for your patience.

For the safety on campus, I invited Dan Poherence from the Risk Management Office of the diocese to join us for a tour and evaluation. Recently, he has sent back an update with photos of areas we need to fix soon, before more damages take place. In particular, the driveway between St. Mary rectory and church will start in September. The steps and the front side of St. Mary's church are waiting for repair in August.

Your warm welcome at the picnic event on July 19 and everywhere I have met you in our community have made me feel at home in this parish. Fr. Jim Jaeger has shared with me your love and dedication to this parish. Shortly after my announcement of moving to serve this parish, a parishioner in Mount Morris brought me a copy of the Catholic Readers Digest issued in September 1985. I found a short article "St. John Vianney, the Perfect Pastor", written by Bishop Thomas J. Grady. Toward the end of the piece, the author admired St. John's "openness and commitment to the Holy Spirit", and his "desire to tell people about the goodness of God and lead them to find peace in God's goodness." Let us ask for the blessing of St. John Vianney that we continue to follow his example as we always open ourselves to lead others toward God's goodness.

Enjoy the Summer's Sunshine

Fr. Hoan
