Companions on the Journey

Our Bible discussion group has resumed meeting the second and fourth Sundays after the 10 a.m. Mass. We do not read the Bible together -- we share our experiences of reading the Bible at home. No worries -- no one is put on the spot! You are free to plot your own journey or to follow the path someone else is taking. We can provide a list of "narrative" passages that reveal the salvation story we celebrate as Catholic Christians. You may want to read and pray with the readings for daily Mass or Sunday Mass. Maybe you are drawn to a specific book, from Genesis to Psalms to Revelation. All is good. Check us out! None of us are scholars. But we are believers and companions. If you have any questions, call Jackie Hallifax, 850-284-2251.

"A Bible that is falling apart usually belongs to a person who is not." Anonymous

Please keep all who have recently died, and their families in your prayers.

The red Sanctuary Lamp, continuously aglow above or near the tabernacle, indicates the presence of Christ, the Blessed Sacrament. If you wish to have the Sanctuary Lamp lit in memory of a loved one, please contact the parish office. In addition, if you would like to sponsor the Altar Breads, Altar Wine or Altar Candles for a given month in memory of a loved one, please contact the parish office.

St. John Vianney Parish

Heavenly Father, heal the sick, comfort the sorrowing, encourage the discouraged and give us strength.

DIOCESE OF ROCHESTER PERMANENT DIACONATE:

The deacon is a man of faith, who is called from the community that already recognizes his dedication to service. He makes a lifetime commitment to serving the People of God by proclaiming the Word, assisting and presiding at liturgies, and ministering in the areas of charity and social justice. A deacon gives witness to his availability to the community by addressing present and emerging needs of the Church. The Diocese is inviting interested men of strong and active faith, who can demonstrate a record of service in the communities in which they live, work and worship, who may wish to explore a possible call to ordained ministry as a permanent deacon, to first speak with their pastor for an initial conversation. They may also contact Deacon Edward Giblin, Director of the Office of the Permanent Diaconate, at edward.giblin@dor.org, for additional information. A potential candidate must be at least 35 years of age and no older than 62 years of age at the time of ordination after a five (5) year period of formation. He must be in good health, emotionally mature, have stable relationships and must have the wholehearted support of his wife (if married) and family to enter the phase of inquiry. Because the parish is the primary experience of Church for most inquirers, the parish community is asked as well to invite from among its members men who exhibit strong faith and a spirit of service, and to encourage them to consider a possible vocation to the permanent diaconate. The Diocese anticipates that the next formation class will begin in Fall 2027, with the application process beginning in early 2027.

The Annual St. John Vianney Yard Sale is set for May 15-16, 2026 in the pavilion at St. Mary's. Your donations of gently used household items are always needed, but clothing is not sold at this sale.

However, as you search your sheds, cupboards, closets, and garages for items that you no longer want or need, please consider making any clothing donations to Sara's Closet at Bath's First Presbyterian Church.

Sara's Closet is named in memory of Sara Johnson, a deacon, who saw a need and created the community clothing giveaway after the Salvation Army in Bath closed. The closet, located in the basement of the Presbyterian Church and supervised by Laura Ask, is open for shopping on all non-holiday Mondays from 11:30 AM-2:30 PM. Donations of adult men's and women's clothing, shoes, and purses may be taken there during those hours as well and are most welcome.

Please DO NOT bring clothing donations to St. Mary's

If you have or know of any upcoming events you would like to see in the bulletin, please contact Nicki Ignatz. They need to be submitted a week or two prior.
