With careful review of the recent surveys, the Spiritual Renewal team is working to provide resources of websites, apps, books, and events, to guide you to a deeper understanding of our faith and a closer relationship with God both individually and in group settings. Please refer to this section of the bulletin for more suggestions. We look forward to hearing your ideas as well.

Pope Francis' book, Prayer: The Breath of New Life, is a collection of reflections, teachings, and addresses by Pope Francis where he compares prayer to breathing- we inhale the fresh air of the Holy Spirit and we share the love of Christ with others as we exhale.

Next weekend, Deacon Thomas Jack will present a Fall Bible Study, "Paul's Letter to the Galatians" at St. Mary's O'Malley Hall after the Sunday 10:30 Mass on October 18th, October 25th, and November 8th. Coffee will be available. Please contact Shelly if you'd like to bring a snack to share on one of the dates.

An Advent program is also being planned for three weeks in December with daytime and early evening options.

"Lord, teach me to pray."

For the month of October: Turning Point Ministry

The Greater Bath Area Thanksgiving Project, in conjunction with Centenary United Methodist Church, is asking important members of the Bath community to donate what they are able, to purchase Save-A-Lot gift cards for families who will register with Catholic Charities' Turning Point food pantry. The gift card amounts will vary, based on the size of the family.

This marks the 43rd year of the Thanksgiving Project, which was most recently organized by Bob and Mary Dunham. It is a testament to the Bath community's care and concern for their own.

Here is how you can help:

Please send your donation or Save-A-Lot gift card to:

James and Holly Gleason
8539 State Route 54
Hammondsport NY 14840

with your check made payable to 'Bath Thanksgiving Project', before November 1st.

Thank you, in advance, for your generosity as we help those in need in our community.
