Penitential Act:

Entrance Antiphon: All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

FIRST READING

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O Lord, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O Lord, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the Lord, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.

For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, O Lord, and have pity on me; O Lord, be my helper.

You changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also. For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

GOSPEL

Mark 5:21-43

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark R. Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea.

One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him. There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?" But his disciples said to Jesus, "You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha kum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen

Communion Antiphon

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

Last Saturday and Sunday, we had the honor of anointing 75 people after Masses. It is good to return to the Anointing of the Sick! In the last month I have also anointed four others who CareFirst called me to anoint in hospice in our area. The Taylor Nursing home called and asked to anoint two of their residents. It is a pleasure to go anoint and pray with those who are ill. We do the best that we can to get to those who are infirm. If CareFirst or the parish doesn't call and let us know who needs anointing, please inform us so that we can arrange my schedule to get there for them.

This past Tuesday, June 22nd, was the Pastoral Feast Day of our Diocese. I attended a special Mass at the Cathedral and I remembered all of you there. I attended St. John Fisher College and he is our Patron of the Diocese. It was important to celebrate with the Bishop for our people.

Last week I got to meet with the manager of Isaac Heating. I asked him to have his technicians go to St. Gabriel's to service the air conditioners. We needed the lines flushed from being plugged and dripping. We need new filters put in and also all new batteries for the remotes. After a year it is good that I ran into him! I also asked him to fix the thermostat at St. Mary's. We need a new one. When the electric goes out, the thermostat turns off. They will be replacing that as well. Since it has been warm and humid, I promise that the church will remain cool and welcoming as we gather to worship.

As you can see from the equipment in our parking lot at St. Mary's, R.E.

Kelley is finally here. The masons will begin pointing our bricks and restoring the wood around the roof. This is the last phase of our Capital Campaign. More information to follow.

Summer has arrived! Although Parish Council meetings cease for the summer, so we can relax a bit, much other work continues. Please take time to rest and recharge.

Your devoted Pastor,

Fr. Jim
